
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Amanda Covington, (801) 321-7110

March 27, 2008

STEPHEN D. NADAULD NAMED INTERIM PRESIDENT OF DIXIE STATE COLLEGE

The State Board of Regents, Thursday, named Dr. Stephen D. Nadauld, former president of Weber State University, as interim president of Dixie State College (DSC), which is located in St. George, Utah. Dr. Nadauld is currently a professor of finance for the Marriott Graduate School of Management at Brigham Young University (BYU). He plans to assume his duties March 28. The Board named Dr. Nadauld following President Lee G. Caldwell's resignation.

"We appreciate President Caldwell's dedicated service as president, and before that as vice president, and wish him well." said Board of Regents Chair Jed H. Pitcher. "The Board is pleased Dr. Nadauld, who brings much experience and stature to the position, has accepted this assignment and is willing to begin immediately. He will carry forward discussions with the University of Utah regarding potential partnerships and an alliance, and will continue to lead the institution as it contributes to workforce and economic development in Washington County and this state."

In accepting this appointment Dr. Nadauld said, "We are very excited to be involved again with higher education in the State of Utah. We look forward to getting acquainted with the wonderful students, outstanding faculty and dedicated staff that we know are part of Dixie State College. Dixie State has a wonderfully supportive community and a very bright future. We appreciate the opportunity to be helpful in the continued planning and realization of that future and thank the Regents for their expression of confidence that accompanies this appointment."

Dr. Nadauld served as the president of WSU from 1985 to 1990. He has also held several positions at BYU's Marriott Graduate School of Management, including director of the Master of Business Administration Program from 1980-1983 and assistant and associate professor of finance from 1976-1983. Dr. Nadauld was an instructor of finance at both the University of California at Berkeley and the University of Utah.

He has earned numerous awards and honors: Outstanding Finance Professor (BYU, 2002); Outstanding Teacher of the Year (School of Business, University of California at Berkeley, 1976); Honorary Doctorate Degree (WSU, 1991); and Silver Beaver Award (Boy Scouts of America, 1992).

Dr. Nadauld is a current board member for the Deseret Book Corporation (2007-present), the O.C. Tanner Corporation (1990-present), and the Utah Higher Education Assistance Authority (1991-2003, 2006-present).

He has dedicated several years of service to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, including serving as the president of the Geneva Switzerland Mission (2003-2006) and serving as a member of the Second Quorum of the Seventy (1991-1996).

Dr. Nadauld earned a doctorate from the University of California at Berkeley, a Master of Business Administration from Harvard Business School, and a bachelor's degree in chemistry, with minors in math, physics and French, from BYU. He also attended the University of Idaho and Ricks College.

He and his wife, Margaret Dyreng Nadauld, have seven sons and 21 grandchildren. Mrs. Nadauld served as the Young Women General President for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints from 1997 to 2002.

###

Amanda K. Covington
Assistant Commissioner for Public Affairs
Utah System of Higher Education
60 South 400 West
Salt Lake City, UT 84101
Phone: (801) 321-7110
Mobile: (801) 231-9511
Fax: (801) 321-7199
acovington@utahsbr.edu